The New Bern Resolves

The New Bern Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution shared information about the New Bern Resolves and its 249th anniversary celebration on August 26th. Susan Lucas with the Daughters of the American Revolution also attended. Bruce Martin, Gary Gillete, Bob Ainsley and our own Bob Rigg came dressed in costume. In addition to talking about the Resolves, they also provided information about SAR and DAR.

The first Provincial Congress to be held in America in open defiance of royal authority was conducted in the Craven County Court House, New Bern, NC during 25-27 August 1774 and is one of the most important contributions to the American Revolutionary movement. The court house was located at the current intersection of Middle & Broad Streets until destroyed by fire in 1865. Seventy-one (71) delegates representing 30 of 36 counties and 6 of 9 boroughs met in defiance of the British Royal Crown at the 1st North Carolina Provincial Congress to discuss the grievances against numerous taxes and laws imposed on the Colonists by the Royal Crown and the British Parliament. Twenty-eight (28) resolutions or resolves were issued in response to the unjust taxes and laws. Richard Caswell, William Hooper and Joseph Hewes were elected as delegates to the 1st Continental Congress and were instructed to present the resolves to the 1st Continental Congress as actionable redress of grievances against the Royal Crown.

On August 26th there will be a procession from Centenary United Methodist along Middle Street to a one-hour ceremony held at the Colonial Chapel Site (outdoor chapel) at Christ Episcopal Church.

SAR and DAR have patriotic, historical and educational goals. These include providing recognition for public service and supporting veterans; providing memorials for people and events of the American Revolution and support genealogical research; and to share stories of the American Revolution. Wreaths across America, supporting veterans and active military; talks to community and school groups, and the activities of their color guard are some of the ways SAR & DAR serve our community.

If you are over 18 and can prove direct lineage to an American Revolutionary patriot, you are eligible to join them.
