Habitat for Humanity

Tracey Lilly, Executive Director of Craven County's Habitat for Humanity, and Buna Cumbie, Volunteer Services Coordinator, spoke to our Breakfast Club about the new home to be built in the Pembroke area in partnership with the New Bern Rotary Club and Habitat for Humanity. Tracey described the criteria for choosing an owner for the home and the "sweat equity" the owner is expected to contribute.

Buna reviewed volunteer orientation procedures for members and their family who want to volunteer in the build. Learn more and sign up to volunteer here: <https://cravencountyhabitat.org/volunteer/>. When you and your family and friends volunteer, remember to sign in and put "Rotary" behind your name.

Please return your pledge forms to Andy – even if the answer is "no money and no time", we need to know. There will be no judging – sometimes you just can't.

Habitat Groundbreaking

We had a huge turnout Saturday morning for the groundbreaking ceremony at 2308 Aycock Avenue in Pembroke.

If we have as many volunteers to do the work, this home will be built in no time!

And quite a few folks enjoyed Pints & Pinots for Habitat last night. Start planning now for the next third Friday, February 16

New Members!

This week Ann Super, our Membership Chair, presented Liz and Elmer Praul, sponsored by Andy Garlick, for induction. We are thrilled to have this fun couple join our club!
